
APPENDIX E:
Vitae

VITAE

Johnette Davies is the Director of Historical Services at Kise Straw & Kolodner. Ms. Davies has an M.S. in Historic Preservation from the University of Pennsylvania and has eight years experience as an architectural historian, historian and cultural resource planner. Her work experience includes municipal preservation planning, architectural research and documentation, architectural and engineering surveys, Section 106 review and historical research for archaeological investigations. Ms. Davies has worked extensively in the cultural resource management field in the Mid-Atlantic region, in addition to restoration projects in Michigan and California. She has completed numerous historic architectural studies in support of Section 106 compliance, as well as contributing to Environmental Impact Statements, Environmental Assessments and Section 4(f) documents. She is a member of the Association for Preservation Technology International and the Vernacular Architecture Forum.

Elizabeth Burling is a Historic Preservation Planner at Kise Straw & Kolodner. Ms. Burling holds Master of City Planning and Master of Science in Historic Preservation degrees from the University of Pennsylvania. She also holds a B.A. in Anthropology from the College of William and Mary in Virginia. Ms. Burling brings five years experience to Kise Straw & Kolodner as an Outdoor Recreation Planner and Field Archaeologist. Her recent professional training has also provided her with skills in building documentation, field survey and historical research. Ms. Burling's prior work experience includes Section 106 compliance, historical research, cultural resource management and archaeological fieldwork.

Judith F. Kennedy served as a Cultural Resource Specialist and Preservation Planner for Kise Straw & Kolodner, Inc. Ms. Kennedy holds an M.S. in Historic Preservation from the University of Pennsylvania and has eight years experience as an architectural historian and cultural resource planner. Her work includes architectural and engineering surveys, Section 106 reviews, preservation and conservation plans, architectural histories, and adaptive reuse planning. She has served as an archaeologist in the United States and the Middle East. She has worked with private individuals and institutions and public agencies, including the Departments of Transportation in Delaware, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, municipal governments, universities, and museums. Ms. Kennedy has completed the National Preservation Institute's course on the 2001 Section 106 Regulations.

Vanessa Zeoli graduated from Millersville University in 1998 with a B.A. in History, and has completed the Certificate Program for Historic Preservation at Bucks County Community College. She is a member of the Historic Preservation Honor Society, Sigma Pi Kappa. Ms. Zeoli joined the firm as a Cultural Resources Specialist in 2001, and serves as both an architectural historian and architectural draftsman. Her work includes public involvement, historical research, field survey and report preparation, and Section 106 compliance for wireless telecommunications projects.

Kise Straw & Kolodner Inc.

123 South Broad Street • Suite 1270 • Philadelphia, PA 19109-1029 • 215.790.1050 • 215.790.0215 fax • www.ksk1.com